The mission of the Howland Achievement Hall of Fame is to recognize members of the Howland Schools Community for their outstanding achievements.

NOMINATION FORM

Categories and Criteria for Nomination:

1. Former students, teachers or administrators who have reached significant achievements in their chosen field.
2. Former students, teachers, administrators or community members who have made outstanding contributions to the Howland Schools Community.
3. All nominees must be of good character.
4. All former student nominees must be alumni graduates of Howland High School for ten years or more.
5. All teachers and administrators must have served at Howland Local Schools for ten years or more.
6. Community members must have lived in Howland Township for a significant period of time.
7. Exceptions to the above requirements (Ex: if an inductee has a life threatening disease or has passed away) require a 100% vote of the Selection Committee.

Through this recognition, Howland's tradition of excellence will be enhanced, and the bond between the school, the community and our alumni will be strengthened.
